

La Riana (www.HotellLaRiana.com) is a small privately run hotel found on the south facing side of Perinaldo, a romantic site offering wonderful views down the valley to the sea. The hotel has been recently restored and the welcome is warm and inviting, in an atmosphere of fine taste.

Awaiting you in the restaurant are local dishes with fresh seasonal ingredients, offering authentic Mediterranean cooking that is good enough to satisfy even the most refined and discerning palate.

Perinaldo (www.Perinaldo.com) itself is a small Ligurian village that sits on the crest of a hill at 600m, an ideal location to rest and fortify the spirit. Sense the freedom amongst the mimosa trees, lemon and olive groves and regain a new strength whilst exploring the surrounding countryside. Perinaldo is also in the perfect position to set off on excursions to Sanremo, Nice, Monte-Carlo or go over the back mountains to Limone and Cuneo.

The hotel itself has an up to date infrastructure adapted to modern day business or other demanding work. There is a conference room available for up to 20 people and for keeping in contact with clients and work colleagues, it's simplicity itself using the Integrated Wireless LAN system.

Prices between 50,- EURO (Singleroom) and 120,- EURO (Doubleroom)
